PARTIAL TRANSCRIPT OF
HEARING OF THE SCHOOL OF LAW
JUDICIAL COMMITTEE
SEPTEMBER 12, 2003

(AUDIO CD-ROM TRANSCRIPTION)

1 PROFESSOR MACLIN: Okay,
2 okay, this is the disciplinary hearing.
3 This is September the 12th, on Friday
4 afternoon at approximately 1:30 and we 5 have the Chair of the Disciplinary 6 Committee, Professor Tracey Maclin,
7 along with the other panel members
8 Professor Nancy Moore and Professor Mike 9 Harper. Professor Bill Ryckman is 10 representing the Dean. Arnie Rosenfeld
11 is representing Miss Layla Kiani, if I 12 am pronouncing that correctly, and 13 Miss Kiani is here as well.

14 Professor Ryckman, I believe
15 you are going to go first.

16 PROFESSOR RYCKMAN: Yes,
17 thank you. This is... I think the 18 record should show that the makeup of 19 the committee consists as it does
20 because Miss Kiani chose not to have a 21 student member of the committee.

22 MR. ROSENFELD: That is 23 correct.

24 MISS KIANI: That is

1 correct.

2 PROFESSOR RYCKMAN: What I
3 propose to do is to take you through 4 what I consider to be essentially a
5 paper case. Pursuant to our rules I
6 have distributed in advance of this 7 hearing to the members of the committee
8 as well as to Miss Kiani and her counsel
9 the charges. This is what our rules 10 provide and this is the way we have 11 traditionally done it so in a sense I am 12 introducing these into evidence so that 13 it is understood that everyone concerned
14 have the paper documents in advance. Of 15 course the ex parte communication, the 16 scheduling of the hearing and the 17 merits, of course, is not discussed.

18 The organization here is I
19 have given you each five volumes of 20 materials, four of which relate directly
21 to the charges and one as I'll discuss 22 in a minute.

23 PROFESSOR MACLIN: Hold it,
24 Professor Ryckman.

1 PROFESSOR HARPER: Did you
2 get five?

3 PROFESSOR MOORE: I only got 4 four.

5 PROFESSOR HARPER: I only
6 got four.

7 PROFESSOR MACLIN: I have
8 five. I don't know why there is not a 9 fifth volume.

10 PROFESSOR RYCKMAN: Which 11 one are you missing?

12 PROFESSOR HARPER: Apparent-
13 ly Kull's.

14 PROFESSOR MOORE: Same with 15 me.

16 PROFESSOR HARPER: I didn't
17 see -- I was surprised about the Kull
18 thing.

19 PROFESSOR MACLIN: I have
20 Kull's and I gave out everything that I
21 got from Linda Skinner who was in charge
22 of organizing it. Do you have Volume V,
23 Arnie?

24 MR. ROSENFELD: Yes, I do.

1 PROFESSOR MACLIN: Okay.

2 You can still...

3 PROFESSOR RYCKMAN: Let me
4 propose that if it turns out that 5 anything turns on the committee members
6 not having advance access to Volume V
7 then they can take that into account. I
8 don't anticipate that there will be a
9 problem with that. It was just by way
10 of background.

11 But if it turns out that 12 Mr. Rosenfeld thinks that's a problem, 13 or if anybody else does, then that 14 simply extends the period of 15 deliberation when you take a look at it
16 because technically speaking what you 17 ought to be doing is reacting to my 18 presentation of what's in the materials
19 you have received.

20 PROFESSOR HARPER: I am
21 going to switch positions so that Nancy 22 and I, Professor Moore and I can look at 23 Five together.

24 PROFESSOR MACLIN: I remind

1 everybody to keep their voices up so 2 that the recording can pick up all of 3 our voices. Go ahead, Professor.

4 PROFESSOR RYCKMAN: All
5 right. The organization of this is that 6 each volume is devoted to a different
7 paper, although the first volume
8 contains all of the charges which are 9 individually renewed in the succeeding 10 volumes only with respect to the paper.
11 And I want to just briefly go through 12 these materials commenting on why some 13 of them are included. In Volume I
14 obviously we start with the charges.
15 That's Tab 1. In Volume II -- in Tab 2
16 I have reprinted the disciplinary 17 regulations of the School of Law which 18 were also forwarded to defense counsel.

19 MR. ROSENFELD: Can I
20 interrupt one second. I don't know if 21 you want to bring the... but you did
22 amend the charge on Count II.

23 PROFESSOR RYCKMAN: Yes, and 24 I'll get to that.

1 MR. ROSENFELD: I thought
2 you were doing it --

3 PROFESSOR RYCKMAN: No, I'll 4 get to it when I get to Count II and 5 explain. In the disciplinary 6 regulations, we have a definition of 7 plagiarism which you are all familiar
8 with that is in Article II,
9 Subsection 1.E. I also want to comment
10 that in Article IV of the disciplinary 11 regulations one of the tasks of the 12 person appointed by the Dean, and I am
13 the Dean's designate for disciplinary 14 matters, is to discuss the matter with 15 the student if the student chooses to 16 have that happen.

17 Obviously the student has a
18 right to remain silent and on advice of 19 counsel I was informed that Miss Kiani
20 did not wish to be interviewed by me.
21 That is why these materials don't 22 contain a transcript of that interview
23 which is customary and I am sure you
24 have seen before in prior cases.

1                   The next tab, 3, is the 2                   Association of Legal Writing Directors
3                   Citation Manual. This citation manual
4                   is required reading for all Boston
5                   University students as part of the First 6                   Year Writing Program, and particularly I
7                   direct your attention to Section 48
8                   which deals with how you deal with 9                   quotations.
